ASHTAKVARGA POINTS

Ashtakvarga points are the score for how different planets are performing in Each house of the charts, More number of points means most planets are giving good result in that house. Same way we can check points for individual houses as well. Points here are mentioned according to the zodiac sign number.

What does this mean?

Your career and gains houses are very strong with 37 and 38 points respectively. This means you will do very well in your career and all your wishes will eventually be fulfilled.

The least number of points are obtained in the 5th house indicating that speculative investments are not your cup of tea and your wealth will be obtained through hard work only.

As both 2nd house of savings and 11th house of gains have obtained a better score than the 12th house of expenses, both your income and your savings will always remain greater than your losses or expenses.

Lastly, Job suits you better than business as job house has more points.

This chart also confirms the things that have already been mentioned in the ashtakvarga, your 10th house of career and public image and 6th house of job are the strongest. Therefore you must remain in a job and you will be well respected in the society.

This is also a good yoga to win an election or do well in politics as you will be supported by the masses.

LAGNA, HORA & DASHAMSHA

D2 Hora (wealth)

D10 Dashamsha (great successes)

LAGNA KUNDALI ANALYSIS

2nd, 5th, 9th, 10th & 11th Houses - what to expect?

From the Lagna chart, the wealth pattern is strong but structured, indicating gradual and stable accumulation rather than sudden windfalls. The second house lord Saturn is debilitated, which may cause delays in early financial stability, but its placement in a kendra with Jupiter significantly improves the outcome. Jupiter stabilizes Saturn and indicates that wealth may be connected to property, family assets, long-term investments, or disciplined savings. This combination often shows slow but secure growth over time.

The second house contains Mercury and Mars. Mercury, being the ninth lord, placed in the second house forms a strong dhan yoga, showing fortune directly supporting income. Since Mercury also rules the sixth house, earnings may come through service, job, analytical fields, communication, or problem-solving roles. Mars, as lord of the fourth and eleventh houses, placed in the second house, creates a powerful link between gains and savings. This strongly supports accumulation of wealth through career growth, networking, and possibly real estate or rental income. The exchange between Saturn and Mars further strengthens financial coordination, even if effort is required.

Venus, the tenth lord, placed in the twelfth house clearly indicates career connection with foreign lands, multinational companies, or overseas income sources. Jupiter's aspect on the twelfth and Venus being there reinforce foreign earnings. Income may rise significantly when working abroad, with foreign clients, or in global environments. However, twelfth house placement also increases expenses, so financial discipline will be essential.

Overall, wealth is closely tied to career, communication skills, real estate potential, and foreign connections, with stronger accumulation after maturity.

NAVAMSA KUNDALI ANALYSIS

Navamsa Kundali - What to expect?

From the Navamsha chart, the wealth promise continues to look strong and consistent with the Lagna chart. The second house falls in Leo, and Sun, the second lord, is placed in the twelfth house along with Mars. This repetition of second lord connecting with the twelfth house again strengthens the foreign income theme. It clearly suggests earning in a foreign land, through multinational associations, or through work connected to distant locations. Sun conjunct Mars gives drive and ambition in financial matters. Since this conjunction occurs in Mercury's sign, income may be linked to communication, management, analytical work, or strategic roles.

Venus placed in the second house enhances financial comfort and the desire for a good lifestyle. While Venus in Leo may create higher expenses or a taste for luxury, it also indicates financial support through family connections or father's influence at some stage. When we examine the fifth house, its lord connects again to the twelfth house, reinforcing that creative intelligence or skills may generate income abroad. Saturn's aspect on the fifth house can delay gains initially but gives long-term stability once established.

Ketu in the ninth house indicates that luck alone will not build wealth; hard work is essential. However, the ninth lord placed in the eleventh house is an excellent dhan indication. Jupiter in the eleventh house is particularly powerful for gains, networks, and financial expansion. Additionally, the eleventh lord Mercury placed in the second house – repeating the same dhan linkage seen in the Lagna chart – strongly confirms accumulation of wealth.

Saturn's aspect on the twelfth house suggests that foreign earnings may come after initial struggle or delay, but once stability is built, finances become solid and sustainable.

HORA KUNDALI ANALYSIS

Hora Kundali - what to expect?

In this Hora chart, a major cluster of planets – Venus, Sun, Mercury, Moon, Jupiter and Mars – are concentrated together. When so many planets gather in Hora, it shows that wealth is a central karmic theme in life. Money will not be a neutral subject for her; it will fluctuate, demand attention, and shape major decisions. The presence of Jupiter and Venus in this cluster is highly promising. Jupiter in Hora strengthens financial wisdom and the ability to expand income, while Venus gives comfort, lifestyle growth and attraction toward material prosperity.

Mercury in the same grouping indicates income through skills, communication, intellect, business strategy or analytical work. Sun adds authority and leadership-based earning potential. Mars contributes ambition and risk-taking ability. This combination shows someone capable of generating wealth actively rather than passively inheriting it.

However, Saturn, Rahu and Ketu influencing the Hora Lagna axis show that wealth will not come without lessons. Saturn indicates delay and disciplined accumulation. Rahu brings sudden rises and occasional financial volatility. Ketu can create phases of detachment or unexpected expenses. This means income may grow in waves rather than steadily.

Overall, the D2 chart suggests strong earning capacity, especially during periods of Jupiter, Venus and Mercury. There may be early instability or sudden financial shifts, but long-term accumulation looks solid. Wealth is built through effort, intelligence and strategic positioning rather than luck alone. If financial discipline is maintained and impulsive decisions are avoided, this chart can produce substantial prosperity over time.

DASHAMSHA KUNDALI ANALYSIS

Dashamsha Kundali - what to expect?

In this Dashamsha, Mars is placed in the Lagna along with the Ascendant. This is a very strong indicator of ambition, competitiveness and leadership ability in career. Mars in D10 Lagna shows someone who does not wait for opportunities but creates them. It gives courage to take risks and push forward professionally. However, it can also create impatience with slow progress or authority figures. Career growth will come through action, not passivity.

Mercury and Venus placed together in the seventh house of D10 is excellent for professional partnerships, public dealing, client-facing roles, communication-based careers, consulting, design, finance, diplomacy or creative industries. This combination shows business sense and negotiation skills. She can succeed in roles that require interaction, presentation, strategy and refinement.

Sun and Saturn together in the twelfth house of D10 indicate foreign or multinational career involvement. Sun gives authority and recognition, while Saturn gives long-term stability through discipline. However, success may come after working behind the scenes or in structured institutions. There can be periods of feeling under-recognized before major breakthroughs.

Jupiter in the eleventh house of D10 is highly promising. It shows gains through networks, large organizations and expansion over time. Rahu in the ninth house suggests unconventional career paths, foreign travel, or sudden opportunities linked to higher education or global platforms.

Overall, the Dashamsha shows strong professional success potential, particularly in leadership, communication, or international environments. Career may require initial struggle, but long-term growth and recognition are clearly indicated.

FINANCIAL GROWTH PERIODS

Growth Periods for the next 1 year

Under Sun Mahadasha, financial growth will be closely tied to authority, career visibility and decisive actions. Since Saturn rules the second house and Mars rules the eleventh house, their activation periods are indeed important wealth triggers. The Mercury Antardasha phase is favorable because Mercury sits in the second house and connects fortune (9th) with wealth (2nd). The period between 19 February 2026 and 10 April 2026 (Saturn Pratyantar within Mercury Antardasha) is a clear wealth activation window. Saturn governs accumulated assets, so structured income, salary increments or steady gains are likely.

During Sun-Ketu Antardasha, sudden gains are possible, particularly in the Mars Pratyantar (25 May-2 June 2026). Though short, this period can bring quick financial movement. Jupiter Pratyantar (21 June-8 July 2026) supports expansion through networks or professional opportunities. The Saturn and Mercury Pratyantars between July and mid-August 2026 further strengthen stable income flow.

Venus Antardasha (starting August 2026) increases foreign-related earnings but also raises expenses. Wealth can rise, but so can lifestyle costs. Sun Pratyantar (15 October-3 November 2026) and Mars Pratyantar (3-24 December 2026) are strong for visible financial growth. The highest consolidation phase appears between April and July 2027 during Saturn and Mercury Pratyantars, when income may stabilize at a higher level.

Moon periods may increase spending, and Jupiter periods may expand both income and expenses simultaneously.

FINAL COMMENTS

Overall Finances - What to expect?

When we combine the Lagna chart, Navamsha, Hora (D2) and Dashamsha (D10), the overall financial picture is strong, but built through effort and maturity rather than luck alone.

From the Lagna chart, there are powerful dhan connections between the second and eleventh houses, clearly linking income with accumulation. Wealth is tied to career, communication skills, networking and possibly real estate or family assets. The repeated theme of foreign connection – with the tenth lord in the twelfth and supportive twelfth house influences – strongly suggests earning through foreign lands, multinational companies or global platforms.

The Navamsha confirms this pattern, again connecting wealth houses with the twelfth and eleventh, showing that long-term financial stability improves significantly after initial struggle. Luck supports her, but only after sustained hard work. Sudden gains are possible, but they come when she steps outside her comfort zone.

The Hora chart shows strong earning capacity with Jupiter, Venus and Mercury influence, but also waves of financial ups and downs due to Saturn and Rahu. Discipline is the key. The Dashamsha clearly indicates career growth, leadership potential and gains through networks and foreign associations.

Overall, her wealth potential is high. It may not be instant, but with strategic decisions, foreign exposure and financial discipline, she can build substantial and stable prosperity over time.

FINANCIAL ADVICE

What to Do and What Not to Do?

The most important financial advice for you is this: your chart promises wealth, but it rewards strategy, patience and discipline – not impulsiveness. You have strong earning potential, especially through career growth, communication skills, networking and possibly foreign or multinational connections. However, because there are repeated twelfth house influences, income and expenses may rise together. So the first rule for you is strict financial planning.

Do not increase your lifestyle immediately when income grows. Create structured savings, long-term investments and an emergency fund before upgrading comforts. Real estate, retirement planning and systematic investments will suit you better than risky speculation. You may occasionally feel tempted to take bold financial risks, especially during high-energy periods, but avoid impulsive decisions. Always evaluate carefully.

Since foreign connections are highlighted, explore global opportunities, remote work, international clients or relocation if possible. These may significantly improve your earning capacity. Also, invest in skill development. The more refined your communication, analytical or professional abilities become, the more your income expands.

Finally, avoid lending large sums casually and maintain clear financial boundaries, even with family. Your wealth grows strongest when you combine ambition with discipline and long-term thinking rather than short-term excitement.

REMEDIES

Water

- Water the sun or do surya namaskar facing in east direction everyday.

Meditate

- Meditate everyday for minimum 15 min to strengthen your Moon

Yoga

- You must do yogic practices to activate your Moola Dhara chakra for peace

Keep

- You must keep a bunch of dried and tied roots of a Sal tree (Shorea robusta) or Ketaki tree or Black Dammar if you can find it.

Place

- Place the picture of an Elephant's goad in your home and as your wallpaper since it is connected to your moola nakshatra.

Remedies for specific dashas are already suggested, other than that there are few specific things that you must adopt as a lifestyle change for the overall betterment of the planetary energies in your birth chart

GEMSTONE RECOMENDATIONS

Always wear a 2 Mukhi rudraksha if you don't eat nonveg to make your Moon strong.

Neelam can be worn on a Saturday for success, but it must be tested first for 1 week.

Wear a moonga or a Red coral to enhance your finances. It must be worn on a Tuesday.

Diamond can be worn if you are staying away from your birthplace or working on a foreign related project otherwise don't.

You must avoid wearing stones for Saturn, Jupiter, Sun and mercury as these planets are associated with your 6th, 8th and 12th houses.
