What does this mean?

Your career and gains houses are very strong with 37 and 38 points respectively. This means you will do very well in your career and all your wishes will eventually be fulfilled.

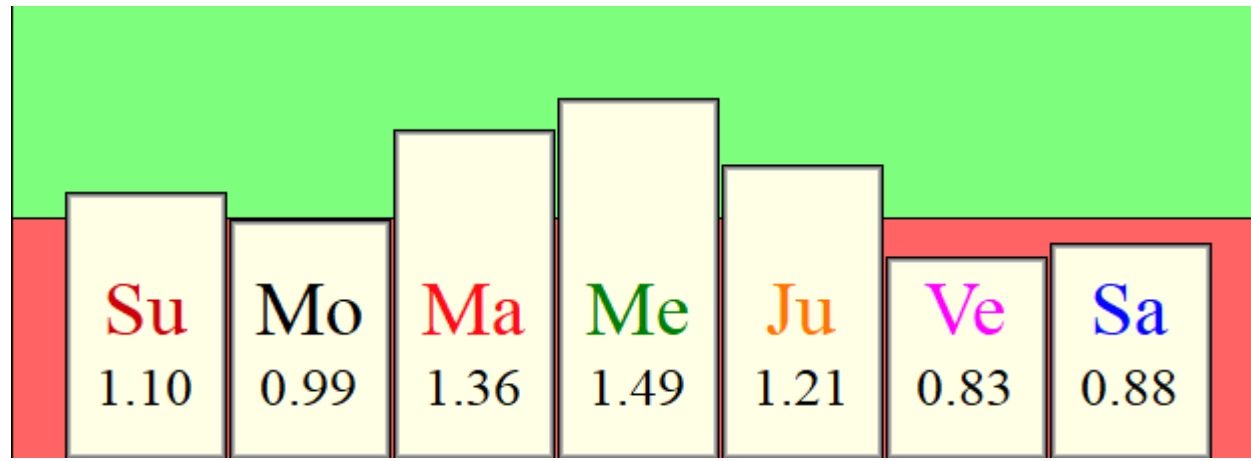

The least number of points are obtained in the 5th house indicating that speculative investments are not your cup of tea and your wealth will be obtained through hard work only.

As both 2nd house of savings and 11th house of gains have obtained a better score than the 12th house of expenses, both your income and your savings will always remain greater than your losses or expenses.

Lastly, Job suits you better than business as job house has more points.

ASHTAKVARGA POINTS

Ashtakvarga points are the score for how different planets are performing in Each house of the charts, More number of points means most planets are giving good result in that house. Same way we can check points for individual houses as well. Points here are mentioned according to the zodiac sign number.

This chart also confirms the things that have already been mentioned in the ashtakvarga, your 10th house of career and public image and 6th house of job are the strongest. Therefore you must remain in a job and you will be well respected in the society.

This is also a good yoga to win an election or do well in politics as you will be supported by the masses.

LAGNA KUNDALI ANALYSIS

5th, 7th & 12th Houses - what to expect?

In the Lagna chart, the seventh house falls in Cancer and its lord Moon is placed in the twelfth house along with Venus, the lord of the fifth house. This is a very strong indicator of love marriage. The connection between the fifth house (romance) and seventh house (marriage) directly shows that love has a high probability of converting into marriage. Since both Moon and Venus are placed in the twelfth house, marriage is likely to happen away from the birthplace – possibly in another state or even abroad. It can also indicate that the spouse may already be settled in a distant place.

Rahu in the seventh house further strengthens the possibility of a non-traditional marriage. This placement often shows marrying someone with a completely different mindset, cultural background, social circle or even religion. Rahu brings unconventional elements. However, Rahu in Cancer can sometimes create emotional insecurity, unrealistic expectations or phases of confusion. It does not necessarily indicate betrayal, but it can create misunderstandings if emotional maturity is lacking.

There are some challenges. Mars in the second house can bring harsh speech within the family, and debilitated Saturn in the fourth house may show family resistance or emotional pressure from relatives, especially in the initial stages. Sun's aspect on the seventh house can also bring ego clashes between partners. However, Jupiter's strong protective aspect on the seventh house is a major relief. It gives wisdom, forgiveness and stability.

Overall, the Lagna chart shows love marriage, some family resistance, cultural or ideological differences, but a bond that survives through maturity and adjustment.

MOON KUNDALI ANALYSIS

Chandra Kundali - what to expect?

When we analyze from the Moon chart, the emotional reality of marriage becomes clearer. Here, Jupiter becomes the Lagnesh and is placed in the fifth house, which is a positive and supportive position. It shows that emotionally, this person approaches love with sincerity and depth. However, Jupiter is conjunct debilitated Saturn, which adds seriousness and emotional heaviness. This indicates that although love exists, early years of marriage may feel demanding, requiring patience and maturity.

The seventh lord from Moon is Mercury, placed in Aquarius along with Mars. Mercury in Aquarius shows intellectual connection and communication in marriage, but Mars adds arguments and ego-driven reactions. This combination indicates that verbal clashes are possible, especially when opinions differ. Since Aquarius is an unconventional sign, this again supports the idea of marrying someone with a different mindset or lifestyle.

Moon and Venus aspecting the seventh house provide emotional bonding and affection, which is very protective. Saturn's aspect on the seventh house, however, brings periodic emotional distance. It does not break the marriage; rather, it makes it more duty-based over time. The romance may mature into responsibility.

A significant concern is the second house, where Surya Grahan yoga indicates disturbances in family harmony or speech-related conflicts. The fourth house also shows some affliction, suggesting emotional pressure within the domestic environment. Still, because Jupiter aspects the Lagna and protects the emotional core, the relationship improves gradually.

This chart confirms that marriage may face emotional tests, but stability grows with time and maturity.

NAVAMSA KUNDALI ANALYSIS

Navamsa Kundali - What to expect?

The Navamsha chart confirms the long-term strength of marriage. Here, the Lagnesh Moon is placed in the Lagna itself, which is a powerful indication. It shows emotional attachment to marriage and a deep desire to make the relationship work. This person does not walk away easily; commitment matters strongly.

Venus, the natural karaka of marriage, is placed in Leo. Venus in Leo desires attention, appreciation and emotional validation. If that emotional reassurance is missing, dissatisfaction can slowly build. Therefore, ego sensitivity in romantic matters must be handled carefully.

The seventh lord in Navamsha is Saturn, placed in Virgo along with Rahu. Saturn as seventh lord gives longevity and seriousness in marriage. Virgo makes the partner practical and analytical. However, Rahu's conjunction introduces karmic complexity. This can indicate marrying someone unconventional, from a different background, culture or belief system. It may also bring phases of doubt, insecurity or misunderstandings. It does not automatically indicate betrayal, but it does require transparency and trust-building.

Jupiter's aspect on the seventh house is highly protective. It ensures that even if there are trust-related tests or ego issues, the marriage does not collapse. Instead, it evolves.

Overall, the Navamsha shows a long-lasting marriage that matures through challenges. It may not be a fairy-tale relationship without friction, but it is resilient. Differences in mindset, cultural background or lifestyle may exist, yet through patience, forgiveness and emotional growth, the bond strengthens over time rather than breaking.

MARRIAGE TIMING

When will you get Married?

Sun Mahadasha is running, and since Sun is directly influencing the seventh house, it activates marriage matters strongly during its sub-periods. When Venus Antardasha begins in August 2026, the tone clearly shifts toward relationships because Venus is both the natural significator of marriage and strongly connected to romance in the birth chart. This makes Sun-Venus a highly relevant window for partnership developments. Within that, Moon Pratyantar (November–December 2026) looks especially promising because Moon is the seventh lord in the Lagna chart. Activation of the seventh lord during a Venus sub-period under Sun Mahadasha creates a clear trigger for commitment.

Even Sun Pratyantar itself can give marriage, since Sun aspects the seventh house and is currently running as Mahadasha lord. It may bring a decisive event or formalization.

Rahu Pratyantar (24 December 2026 to 17 February 2027) is also significant. Rahu sits in the seventh house in the birth chart, so its activation can bring sudden or unconventional alliance – possibly someone from a different background or mindset.

So overall, the period from August 2026 to February 2027 looks like a strong marriage window, with higher probability of meeting someone first and formalizing the relationship soon after.

FINAL COMMENTS

Marriage and Relationships - What to expect?

When I combine the Lagna chart, Moon chart and Navamsha together, the overall picture of your marriage becomes very clear – this is not a weak marriage chart, but it is definitely a mature one. There are strong indications of love marriage, or at least a marriage where emotional choice plays a big role. The connection between the fifth and seventh houses, Rahu in the seventh, and the Navamsha combinations all suggest that your partner may come from a different background, mindset, culture or even religion. This will not be a completely conventional match.

There may be some family resistance or initial emotional turbulence, especially due to ego clashes, communication gaps or differences in expectations. Early phases of marriage may require adjustment. At times, you may feel that your partner thinks very differently from you. But none of the charts show separation. In fact, Jupiter's repeated protective influence and Saturn's involvement show longevity of your Marriage.

This marriage is not about fantasy; it is about growth. There may be misunderstandings, but they will lead to maturity. With conscious communication, emotional transparency and patience, your married life improves steadily over time and becomes stable, deep and lasting rather than fragile.

MY ADVICE

What to Do and What Not to Do?

The most important thing for you to understand is that your marriage is meant to grow with maturity, not perfection. So the first mindset you must develop is this: your partner may think differently from you, may come from a different background, or may express love in a different way – and that does not mean the relationship is wrong. It simply means it requires understanding. Do not enter marriage expecting constant emotional validation, dramatic romance, or mind-reading connection. Your chart shows love, but it also shows strong individuality on both sides. So allow space.

Avoid expecting your partner to agree with you on everything. Ego clashes can arise when both people want to be right. Instead of reacting immediately, pause and communicate calmly. Your speech and tone will be very important in maintaining harmony. Also, do not allow family interference to shape your perception of your spouse. Form your own understanding.

At the same time, do not suppress your emotional needs. Express them clearly rather than assuming they should be understood automatically. Trust must be built consciously. If doubts arise, clarify them gently instead of imagining the worst.

If you enter marriage with patience, flexibility and emotional honesty – rather than rigid expectations – your relationship will deepen beautifully over time.

GEMSTONE RECOMENDATIONS

Always wear a 2 Mukhi rudraksha if you don't eat nonveg to make your Moon strong.

Neelam can be worn on a Saturday for success, but it must be tested first for 1 week.

Wear a moonga or a Red coral to enhance your finances. It must be worn on a Tuesday.

Diamond can be worn if you are staying away from your birthplace or working on a foreign related project otherwise don't.

You must avoid wearing stones for Saturn, Jupiter, Sun and mercury as these planets are associated with your 6th, 8th and 12th houses.
